PREFACE

The research for this history has been done on vacations, plus much time in the Western Reserve Historical Society using their micro-films. It is far from complete and probably contains many errors. But if I do not do it now it may never be published. I invite any corrections and additions in hope of gaining a revised edition.

Most lines are not American Revolutionary families as they were Quakers around White Plains in Westchester County, New York. They could have carted hay, etc. but I did not have time to work on the Bedford N.Y. records.

Many of them were sailors around Long Island and probably went to the West Indies and southern states. More research might clear up much of this work.

We owe our thanks to many people including the Western Reserve Historical Society Staff, Long Island Historical Society, New York State Library in Albany, Miss Addie Dickinson, Ezra Dickinson, Eva Wagoner and many more.

As the result of the Dickinson Family Reunion held in Amherst Mass. August 8-9th, 1883. Wharton Dickinson Professor of Genealogy, he does not state where, but he lived in New York City and Scranton, Penn. His manuscript of the "Maryland Dickinson's" is in the Long Island Historical Society. After the Reunion he wrote the Lambert-Dickinson Family, using material from England and America. These are some of the families who came to America.

Joseph Dickinson son of James b 1700 went to Cork, Ireland in 1720 and to America 1724. This family settled in Haddonfield, N.J. then to Chester County, Penn. and on to Logan County, Ohio. Dr. Mattox compiled this Genealogy.
